(b) The Chair. It is the responsibility of the Chair to keep the comments of Board members on track during public meetings. Board members should honor efforts by the Chair to focus discussion on current agenda items. If there is disagreement about the agenda or the Chair's actions, those objections should be voiced politely and with reason, following parliamentary procedure.

(c) Disagreement. Boards are composed of individuals with a wide variety of backgrounds, personalities, values, opinions, and goals. Despite this diversity, all have chosen to serve in public office in order to preserve and protect the present and future of the community. In all cases, this common goal should be acknowledged even as Board members may "agree to disagree" on contentious issues, and each Board member should, to the extent possible, honor decisions of the Board. Board members should demonstrate effective problem-solving approaches and show how individuals with disparate points of view can find common ground and seek a compromise that benefits the community as a whole.

(d) Civility. Difficult questions, tough challenges to a particular point of view, and criticism of ideas and information are legitimate elements of a free democracy in action. This does not allow, however, Board members to make belligerent, personal, impertinent, slanderous, threatening, abusive, or disparaging comments. No shouting or physical actions that could be construed as threatening will be tolerated. If a Board member is personally offended by the remarks of another Board member, the offended Board member should make notes of the actual words used and call for a "point of personal privilege" that challenges the other Board member to justify or apologize for the language used. The Chair will maintain control of this discussion.

5. Board Conduct Outside of Public Meetings.

(a) Civility in Private; Public Records. The same level of respect and consideration for differing points of view that are deemed appropriate for public discussions should be maintained in private conversations. Beware of the lack of security of written notes, social media, voicemail messages, and email. Technology allows words written or said without much forethought to be distributed wide and far. Would you feel comfortable to have this note faxed to others? How would you feel if this voicemail message were played on a speakerphone in a full office? What would happen if this e-mail message were forwarded to others? Written notes, voicemail messages and e-mail should be treated as potentially public communication.

(b) Public Perception; Open Meeting Law. Elected officials are always on display - their actions, mannerisms, and language are monitored by people around them. Lunch table conversations will be eavesdropped upon, parking lot debates will be watched, and casual comments between individuals before and after public meetings will be noted. Remember the open meeting law prohibits conversations of three or more Board members or the "linking" together through a common source of three or more individual conversations. The law also prohibits proposing a policy or action from one Board member to a quorum of the Board, even if by blind copy email. Proposed actions or policies should be handled through the Board at a properly noticed public meeting.

6. Board Conduct with Staff.

(a) Respect Staff. District governance requires the cooperative efforts of elected officials, who set policy, and staff, who implement and administer the Board's policies. Therefore, every effort should be made to be cooperative and show mutual respect and acknowledgment for the contributions made by each individual for the good of the community. Clear, honest communication that respects the abilities, experience and dignity of each individual is expected. Poor behavior towards staff is not acceptable. It is preferable, when possible, to have questions asked prior to public meetings to allow staff adequate time to research the questions and provide meaningful answers.

(b) Respect the Chain of Command. Staff members are accountable to their supervisors. Tasks performed by staff that come from outside the normal chain of supervision could cause staff confusion, inadequate work product and inefficient performance. Questions of staff and/or requests for additional background information should be directed only to the Board Secretary, Fire Chief, Attorney and Department Heads. The Chair, Board Secretary and Fire Chief should be copied on any request. Requests for follow-up directions to staff should be made only through the Board Secretary or Fire Chief when appropriate. When in doubt about what staff contact is appropriate, Board members should ask the Board Chair for direction. Materials supplied to a Board member in response to a request should be made available to all members of the Board so that all have equal access to the information.

(c) Minimize Disruption. Board members should not disrupt staff while they are in meetings, on the phone, or engrossed in performing their job functions in order to have their individual needs met.

(d) Criticism of Staff. Board members should never express concerns about the performance of an employee in public, to the employee directly, or to the employee's supervisor. Misdirected comments could violate NWFD personnel rules and impair supervisors' ability to deal fairly and efficiently with personnel matters. Comments about staff performance should only be made to the Fire Chief through private correspondence or conversation. Staff should not hesitate to avail themselves of Board expertise where appropriate.

(e) Interference with Administrative Functions. Board members must not attempt to influence staff on the making of appointments, awarding of contracts, selecting of consultants, processing of permit applications, or granting of any District licenses, permits or other rights.

(f) Correspondence. Before sending correspondence, Board members should check with the Board Secretary or Fire Chief to see if an official response has already been sent or is in progress.

(g) Staff Meetings. Do not attend staff meetings, unless invited by staff. Even if the Board member does not say anything, the Board member's presence may imply support, show partiality, intimidate staff, or hamper staff's ability to do their job objectively. Board members may request through the Board Secretary or Fire Chief, to attend specific meetings, and they should honor the decision once given.

(h) Staff Support for Board Members. Routine secretarial support will be provided to all Board members. All mail for Board members is opened by the Board Secretary or Fire Chief, unless other arrangements are requested by a Board member.

7. Board Conduct with the Public at Public Meetings.

(a) Be fair and Impartial. Making the public feel welcome is an important part of the democratic process. No signs of partiality, prejudice or disrespect should be evident on the part of individual Board members toward an individual participating in a public forum. Every effort should be made to be fair and impartial in allocating speaking time and listening to public statements. The Chair will determine and announce limits on speakers at the start of the public participation process. Generally, each speaker will be allocated three minutes. If many speakers are anticipated, the Chair may shorten the time limit and/or ask speakers to limit themselves to new information and points of view not already covered by previous speakers. No speaker will be turned away unless he/she exhibits inappropriate or disruptive behavior. After the close of the public process, no more public statements will be accepted unless the Chair reopens the public process for a limited and specific purpose.

(b) Be a Good Listener. It is disconcerting to speakers to have Board members not look at them when they are speaking. It is fine to look down at documents or to make notes, but reading for a long period of time or gazing around the room gives the appearance of disinterest. Be aware of facial expressions, especially those that could be interpreted as "smirking," disbelief, anger or boredom.

(c) Avoid Argument or Debate. Only the Chair, not individual Board members, may interrupt a speaker during a presentation. However, a Board member can ask the Chair for a point of order if the speaker is off the topic or exhibiting behavior or language the Board member finds disturbing. If speakers become flustered or defensive by Board questions, it is the responsibility of the Chair to calm and focus the speaker and to maintain the order and decorum of the meeting. Questions by Board members to members of the public speaking should seek to clarify or expand information. It is never appropriate to belligerently challenge or belittle the speaker. Board members' personal opinions or inclinations about upcoming votes should not be revealed until after public participation is closed. Board members should be aware that their body language and tone of voice, as well as the words they use, can appear to be intimidating or aggressive.

8. Board Conduct with the Public Outside of Public Meetings.

(a) Make No Commitments On Behalf of the District. Board members will frequently be asked to explain a Board action or to give their opinion about an issue as they meet and talk with constituents in the community. It is appropriate to give a brief overview of policy and to refer to staff for further information. It is inappropriate to overtly or implicitly promise Board action, or to promise staff will do something specific. It is important to remember that you are one vote. It takes a quorum of the Board to make any Board decision or take action.

(b) No Derogatory Comments. It is acceptable to publicly disagree about an issue, but it is unacceptable to make derogatory comments about other Board members, staff or their opinions and actions.

(c) Be Professional and Respectful. Board members are constantly being observed by the community every day that they serve in office. Their behaviors and comments should serve as models for proper behavior within the District. Honesty and respect for the dignity of each individual should be reflected in every word and action taken by Board members, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. It is a serious and continuous responsibility.

9. Board Conduct with Other Entities.

(a) Appearing Before Other Organizations. If a Board member appears before another governmental agency or organization to give a statement on an issue, the Board member must clearly state: 1) if his or her statement reflects personal opinion or is the official stance of the District; 2) whether this is the majority or minority opinion of the Board. If the Board member is representing another organization whose position is different from that of the District, the Board member should withdraw from participating on the issue if it significantly impacts or is detrimental to the District's interest. Board members should be open about which organizations they represent and inform the Chair and Board of their involvement.

(b) Correspondence with Other Organizations. The District's letterhead may be used when a Board member is representing the District and the District's official position. A copy of official correspondence should be given to the Board Secretary to be filed as part of the permanent public record. District letterhead should not be used for correspondence of Board members representing a personal point of view, and is best not used to express a dissenting point of view from an official Board position. However, should Board members use District letterhead to express a dissenting point of view, the official District position must be stated clearly so the reader understands the difference between the official District position and the viewpoint of the individual Board member.

10. Board Conduct with Appointed District Boards and Commissions. The District has established Boards and Commissions as a means of gathering more community input. Citizens who serve on Boards and Commissions become more involved in government and serve as advisors to the Governing Board. They are a valuable resource to the District's leadership and should be treated with appreciation and respect.

(a) Attending Meetings of Boards and Commissions. Board members may attend any Board or Commission meetings, which are always open to any member of the public. However, they should be sensitive to the way their participation - especially if it is on behalf of an individual, business or developer - could be viewed as unfairly affecting the process. Any public comments by a Board member at a Board or Commission meeting should be clearly made as individual opinion and not a representation of the feelings of the entire Governing Board.

(b) Lobbying Boards and Commissions. It is inappropriate for a Board member to contact a Board or Commission member to lobby on behalf of an individual, business, or developer. It is acceptable for Board members to contact Board or Commission members in order to clarify a position taken by the Board or Commission.

(c) Appointing and Influencing Members. The District appoints individuals to serve on Boards and Commissions, and it is the responsibility of Boards and Commissions to follow policy established by the Governing Board. However Board and Commission members do not report to individual Board members, nor should Board members feel they have the power or right to threaten Board and Commission members with removal if they disagree about an issue. Appointment and re-appointment to a Board or Commission should be based on such criteria as expertise, ability to work with staff and the public, and commitment to fulfilling official duties. A Board or Commission appointment should not be used as a political "reward." Boards and committees should always remember they are advisory to the Governing Board, and often require Governing Board action or other approval of their recommendations.

(d) Respect Differing Opinions. A primary role of Boards and Commissions is to represent many points of view in the community and to provide the Board with advice based on a full spectrum of concerns and perspectives. Board members may have a closer working relationship with some individuals serving on Boards and Commissions, but must be fair and respectful of all citizens serving on Boards and Commissions.

(e) Political Activity. Board and Commission members may offer political support to a Board member, but not in a public forum while conducting official duties. Conversely, Board members may support Board and Commission members who are running for office, but not in an official forum in their capacity as a District Governing Board member.

(f) Misconduct by Board or Commission Member. Inappropriate behavior by a Board or Commission member should be noted to the member's Chair and Vice Chair. The member's Chair and Vice Chair, with prior consultation with the Fire Chief and Board Secretary, should counsel the offending member. If inappropriate behavior continues, the Chair and Vice Chair should bring the situation to the attention of the Governing Board. Conflicts should be resolved at the lowest possible level.

11. Board Conduct with the Media.

(a) Stay On the Record. The best advice for dealing with the media is to "never go off the record." Most members of the media represent the highest levels of journalistic integrity and ethics, and can be trusted to keep their word. But one bad experience can be catastrophic. Words that are not said cannot be quoted.

(b) The Board Chair Should Speak on Behalf of the Board. The Chair is the designated representative of the Board to present and speak on the official District position. If an individual Board member is contacted by the media, the Board member should be clear about whether their comments represent the official District position or a personal viewpoint.

(c) Stay Professional. Comments taken out of context can cause problems. Be especially cautious about humor, sardonic asides, sarcasm, or word play. It is never appropriate to use personal slurs or swear words when talking with the media.

12. Sanctions for Board Member Misconduct.

(a) Serious Board Member Misconduct. Board members who intentionally and repeatedly do not follow proper conduct may be reprimanded or formally censured by the Board, lose committee assignments or have official travel restricted. Serious infractions of the Code of Conduct could lead to other sanctions as deemed appropriate by Board.

(b) Addressing Infractions. Board members should point out to the offending Board member infractions of the Code of Conduct. If the offenses continue, then the matter should be referred to the Chair in private. If the Chair is the individual whose actions are being challenged, then the matter should be referred to the Vice Chair.

(c) Role of the Chair. It is the responsibility of the Chair to initiate action if a Board member's behavior may warrant sanction. If no action is taken by the Chair, the alleged violation(s) can be brought up with the full Board in a public meeting.

(d) Investigations. If a violation of the Code of Conduct is outside of the observed behaviors by the Chair or Board members, the alleged violation should be referred to the Chair. The Chair should contact the District's Attorney regarding the proper investigative procedure to follow. It is the Chair's responsibility to take the next appropriate action. These actions can include, but are not limited to: discussing and counseling the individual on the violations; recommending sanction to the full Board to consider in a public meeting; or forming a Board ad hoc subcommittee to review the allegation, the investigation and its findings, as well as to recommend sanction options for Board consideration. Videotaping of the complaint hearing should be used for a Board ad hoc subcommittee.

13. Addressing Staff Misconduct. Board members should refer to the Fire Chief any District staff members who do not follow proper conduct in their dealings with Board members, other District staff, or the public. These employees may be disciplined in accordance with District personnel policies and procedures for such actions.

14. Principles of Good Conduct.

- (a) Keeping promises
- (b) Being dependable
- (c) Building a solid reputation
- (d) Participating and being available
- (e) Demonstrating patience
- (f) Showing empathy
- (g) Holding onto ethical principles under stress
- (h) Listening attentively
- (i) Studying thoroughly
- (j) Keeping integrity intact
- (k) Overcoming discouragement
- (l) Going above and beyond, time and time again
- (m) Modeling a professional demeanor

15. Behaviors Inconsistent With Good Conduct.

- (a) Showing antagonism or hostility
- (b) Deliberately lying or misleading
- (c) Speaking recklessly
- (d) Spreading rumors
- (e) Stirring up bad feelings, divisiveness
- (f) Acting in a self-righteous manner

16. Checklist for Monitoring Conduct. It all comes down to respect. Respect for one another as individuals; respect for the validity of different opinions; respect for the democratic process; and respect for the community that we serve. The following is a checklist Board members can use to monitor their own conduct:

- (a) Will my decision/statement/action violate the trust, rights or good will of others?
- (b) What are my ulterior motives and the spirit behind my actions?
- (c) If I have to justify my conduct in public tomorrow, will I do so with pride or shame?
- (d) How would my conduct be evaluated by people whose integrity and character I respect?
- (e) Even if my conduct is not illegal or unethical, is it done at someone else's painful expense? Will it destroy their trust in me? Will it harm their reputation?
- (f) Is my conduct fair, just, morally right?
- (g) If I were on the receiving end of my conduct, would I approve and agree, or would I take offense?
- (h) Does my conduct give others reason to trust or distrust me?
- (i) Am I willing to take an ethical stand when it is called for? Am I willing to make my ethical beliefs public in a way that makes it clear what I stand for?
- (j) Do I exhibit the same conduct in my private life as I do in my public life?
- (k) Can I take legitimate pride in the way I conduct myself and the example I set?
- (l) Do I listen and understand the views of others?
- (m) Do I question and confront different points of view in a constructive manner?
- (n) Do I work to resolve differences and come to mutual agreement?
- (o) Do I support others and show respect for their ideas?
- (p) Will my conduct cause public embarrassment to someone else?
